

LOCKDOWN LOWDOWN

THE WHĀNAU CHALLENGE

My challenge to you and your whānau is to read the LOCKDOWN LOWDOWN carefully and then complete as many of the challenges as you can. Email your answers to me by Monday (msyme@bulls.school.nz) and be in to win! House Points and Prizes up for grabs.

1. Mrs Hall can see and hear many manu (birds). What are the māori names for these birds?
2. Mrs Tweeddale has enjoyed walking around Sanson. Name 5 streets in Sanson.
3. As usual Mr Fenn has been enjoying doing jobs at home. How many chocolate chip cookies is he going to eat to keep his energy up? (Count all the cookies in the photo as he is not going to share any of them with Mrs Fenn and Jaya!)
4. Whaea Kimi likes to make flashcards. Help her by finding the māori kupu / words for: dance, draw, walk, cook, sing and eat
5. Sharon and Barry have become regular visitors at Mrs Syme's house. Spring is the time they lay their eggs. On average, how many eggs do Pārerā (Grey Ducks) lay? Do you have any name suggestions?
6. Miss G wove putiputi. What can your whānau weave? Include photographic evidence.
7. The cooking at Mrs Cameron's house has been creative. Weird food combos have been a regular feature. Name 5 weird food combos that may never have been thought of before.
8. Matua T has been busy eating and training. I challenge each member of your family to:
10 star jumps, 10 Sit Ups, 10 Squats, 10 Pushups and eat 1 small carrot.

9. Bowie and Banksy are obviously very intelligent and playful members of Mrs Dunlops whānau. What tricks can your pet do? Send photos if possible.
10. Whaea Jo loves a good scavenger hunt. Look closely at her photos. Can you find something beginning with each letter of WHAEA JO.
11. Miss Gouwland has been enjoying the great outdoors while going for nature walks. List 10 things she might see.
12. Enjoying the local parks has been high on Miss Guard's favourite things to do. Name 4 parks in Feilding.
